10 new dairy products for June Dairy Month

It's National Dairy Month and we are celebrating by highlighting some favorite new products from across the dairy aisles. Simple and clean ingredients and bold flavors are on display with this crop of new dairy products.

New milk and butter products

Wellman, Iowa-based Kalona Organics, distributor of the Kalona SuperNatural brand, introduced a 16-ounce on-the-go size of its organic whole-milk chocolate milk. The new size is ideal to use for a recovery drink, said the company, and it joins the 32-ounce and 64-ounce sizes already offered.

The chocolate milk is made with USDA-certified organic, grass-fed grade-A whole-milk, organic cane sugar, organic nonfat milk, organic cocoa and carrageenan. The milk is non-homogenized and batch pasteurized.

A 1-cup serving contains 250 calories, 7 grams of fat, 31 grams of sugar and 10 grams of protein. The milk is available at Hy-Vee stores, Natural Grocers, and independent natural foods retailers and co-ops. The milk sells for a suggested retail price of $2.99.

The Farmer's Cow, Lebanon, Conn., added another flavor to its line of limited-edition flavored milks — a raspberry white chocolate, which is available through the spring season. It's sold in a 32-ounce collectible glass bottle for a suggested retail price of $5.99...read more about this product here.

Finlandia Imported Butter, Parsippany, N.J., launched two premium spreadable butters — spreadable butter with canola oil and spreadable butter with canola oil 25% reduced-fat — to its portfolio.

The butter is made with non-GMO canola oil and contains less sodium compared to other butters, according to the company. The regular butter with canola oil contains 90 calories, 10 grams of fat and 35 milligrams of sodium per 1-tablespoon serving.

The butters are available in 8-ounce and 15-ounce tubs and can be found at select grocery stores and supermarkets nationwide. The suggested retail pricing is $3.99 for the 8-ounce and $6.99 for the 15-ounce.
